SunRail to Resume Service to the Tupperware Station – Bus Bridge
Continues for Kissimmee/Amtrak and Poinciana Stations
Thursday, October 6, 2022

ORLANDO, Fla. – SunRail will resume regular service to the Tupperware station beginning Thursday, October 6, 2022, but will continue connectivity to the Kissimmee and Poinciana stations through the current LYNX bus bridge schedule. Due to track damage sustained during Hurricane Ian, service on the southernmost portion of the Central Florida Rail Corridor was impacted.

The latest modified schedule may be viewed on SunRail.com. All train times between the DeBary and Tupperware stations will remain the same as prior to the storm, however service will not run to the Kissimmee or Poinciana stations. A LYNX Bus Bridge has been established and will service the Kissimmee and Poinciana stations until the track repairs are complete.

The repairs are expected to take several weeks, and updates will be provided as soon as service to the southern stations may safely resume.

Regular SunRail fares apply and those with travel passes affected by this change may contact customer service to discuss options to place their pass on hold until full service resumes. Customer service hours are Monday – Friday 5:30 a.m. – 9:30 p.m. and they may be contacted by phone at 1-855-724-5411 or by email to info@SunRail.com.

LYNX bus service will continue to run, however they may need to modify routes. For the latest LYNX service updates, please visit GoLynx.com or call 407-841-5969.

Please remember to exercise caution around trains and railroad crossings by keeping off the tracks and obeying all signs and signals. Be smart. Be safe.

Learn about service updates and other SunRail information by following @RideSunRail, visiting SunRail.com, and downloading the official SunRail app.
