SunRail and the Orlando Magic Train-To-The-Game Returns

Enjoy the convenience of free parking at all suburban SunRail stations and ride for FREE to the game!

ORLANDO, Fla. – SunRail riders and Orlando Magic fans will have even more reason to cheer during the 2026-27 season! Beginning Tuesday, October 13, SunRail's Train-To-The-Game service returns, allowing all Magic ticketholders to ride SunRail for FREE, courtesy of the Orlando Magic.

All season long, on weeknights (Monday-Friday) when the Magic have home games, Magic fans simply need to show their gameday ticket, either hard copy or electronically, to a SunRail conductor or fare inspector to enjoy the FREE service. The Magic have 31 weeknight home games scheduled.

The Orlando Magic play at The Kia Center, just steps away from SunRail's Church Street Station. The last northbound train to leave the Church Street Station is 10:32 p.m. and the last southbound train for weeknight games leaves at 11:01 p.m.

Please be careful around trains, railroad crossings, and while at station platforms. Be smart. Be safe. For more information about SunRail, including fares, schedule, and station locations, please visit www.SunRail.com, or download the SunRail app.

Media inquiries should be directed to the FDOT Public Information Office at FDOT-D5COMM@dot.state.fl.us or (386) 943-5593.
